Places To Visit

Recommended places to visit

Girona

It is the closest city to Can Salarichs. The city is partially surrounded by an impressive city wall; the characterful interior is delightful, with pleasant squares, cobbled streets, and a wealth of historical monuments and buildings. The old city is built on a fortified hill and part of the walled fortifications still exist. The modern cosmopolitan Girona spreads out across the plain alongside.

Tossa de Mar

Located between Lloret and Sant Feliu de Guixols. Tossa is an ancient fishermen's village with an important historical background, that has become a well known tourist destination on the Costa Brava.

Banyoles

Eighteen kilometres away from Girona, we find Banyoles. Surrounded by green hills, the city is well known because of the lake. The best option is to hire small vessels to go rowing, fishing or canoeing.

Lloret de Mar

Lloret de Mar has been known for years as the largest nightlife paradise in Europe. But there are plenty of other things to do and visit in Lloret: there are 8 beautiful beaches and different historical sights located in Lloret, such as castles.

Barcelona

The city is a major cultural centre with a remarkable history. It abounds with museums and buildings of interest, which feature a great architecture. At the core of the city lies the Gothic Quarter, located between the Ramblas. The skyline of the modern city inevitably reflects the style of the present age, but Barcelona has always attracted distinguished and original architects.

La Roca Village

If you are looking to do some luxury shopping during your trip, you will definitely want to take a trip to La Roca Village. More than 100 boutiques which stock the finest fashion and lifestyle brands to offer the best outlet shopping experience possible.

Figueres

(1 hour) Dali's Museum is one of the most famous in the area. If you want to discover Dali's arts it would be an amazing trip.
